

Build a blanket fort.

Make paper airplanes
and race them.

Make boats and test them in your
sink or tub.

Make a pillow fort.

Make a village out of play dough.

Bake cookies

Write a story and then illustrate it.

Have a dance party and make up your own dance to a song.

Bake a cake and decorate it with whatever sprinkles, candy or treats you have.

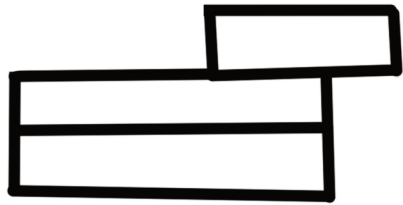

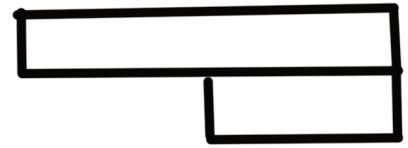

Do one or two small acts of service for every member of your family.

Do a big puzzle or make your own

puzzles to do.

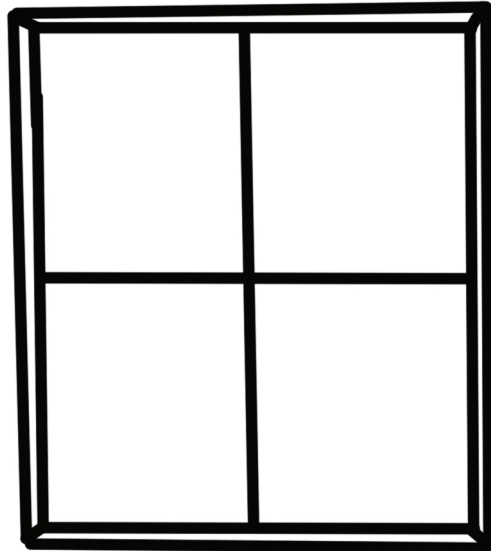

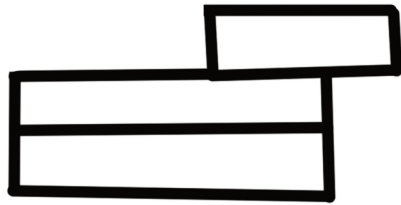

Plan and schedule a fun event for the future and make a count down chain.

Make your own instruments and create your own band with them.

Look up a yoga video online
and do yoga together.

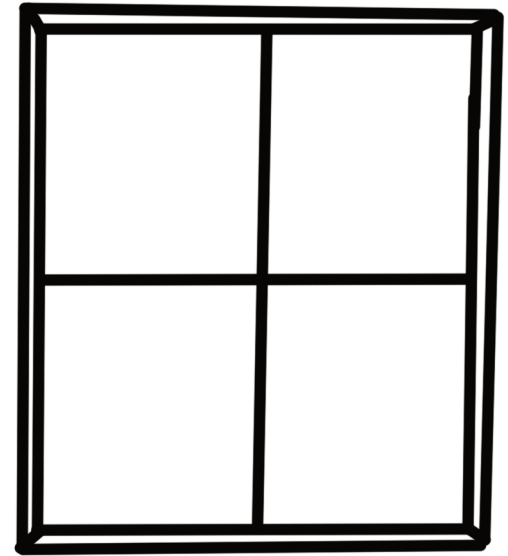

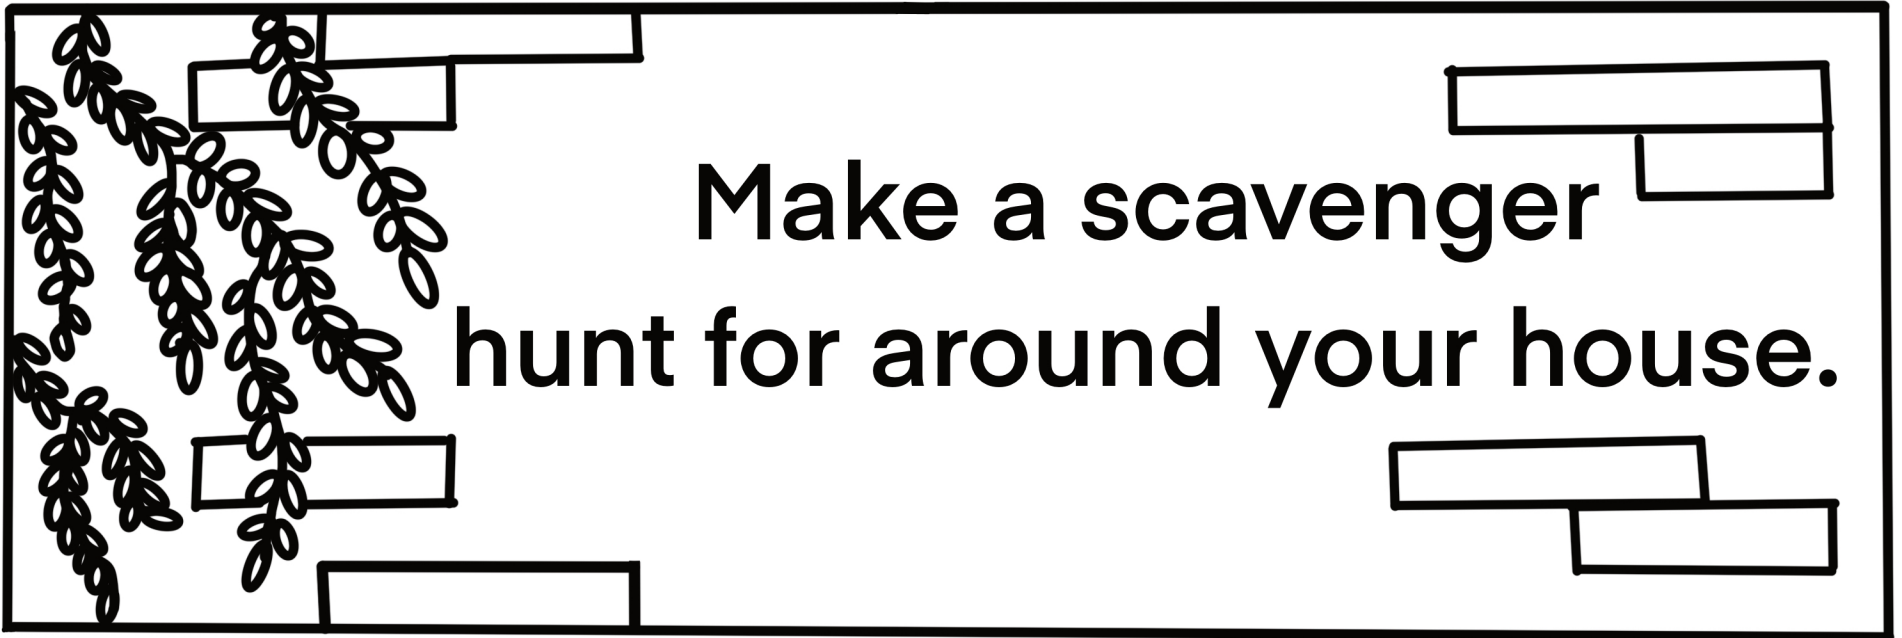

Watch home
videos or go through old photos
together.

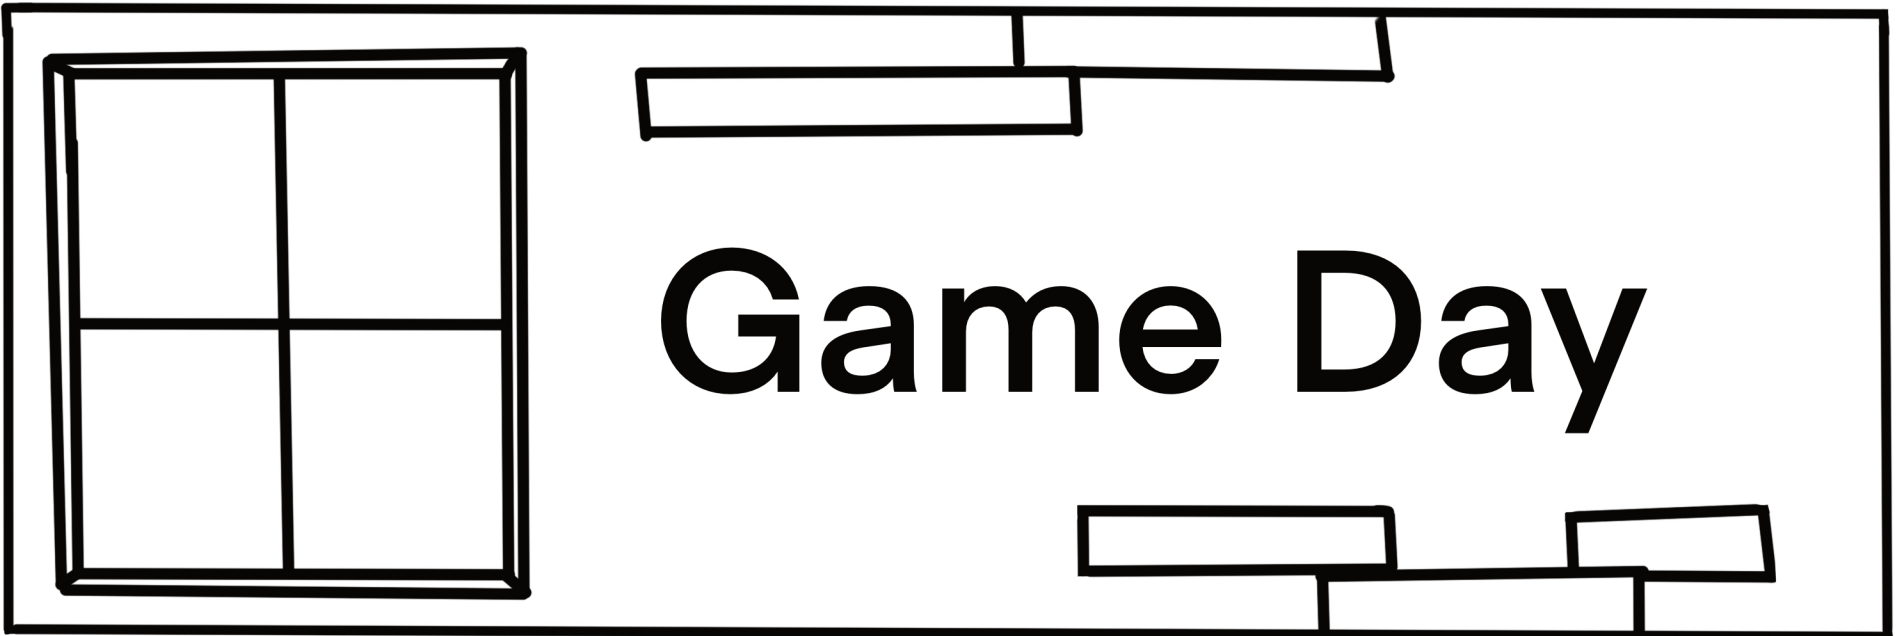

Have a silly
indoor photo shoot.

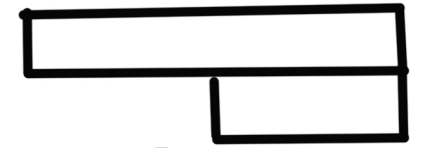

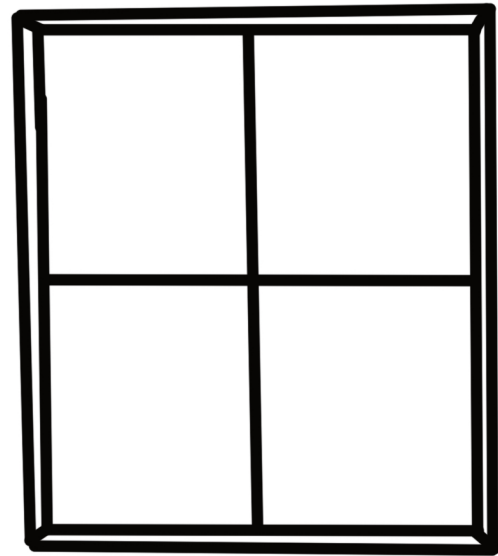

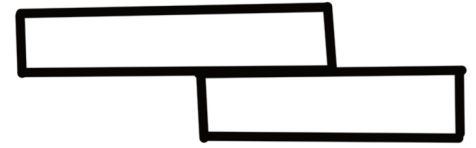

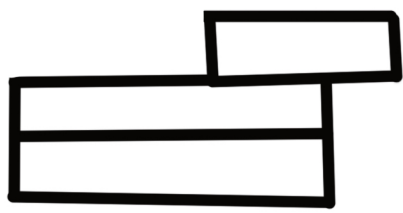

Make a scavenger
hunt for around your house.

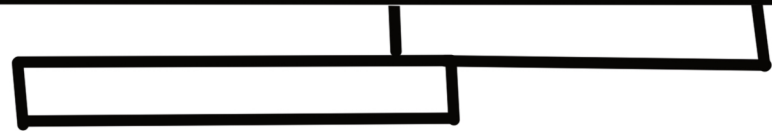

Game Day

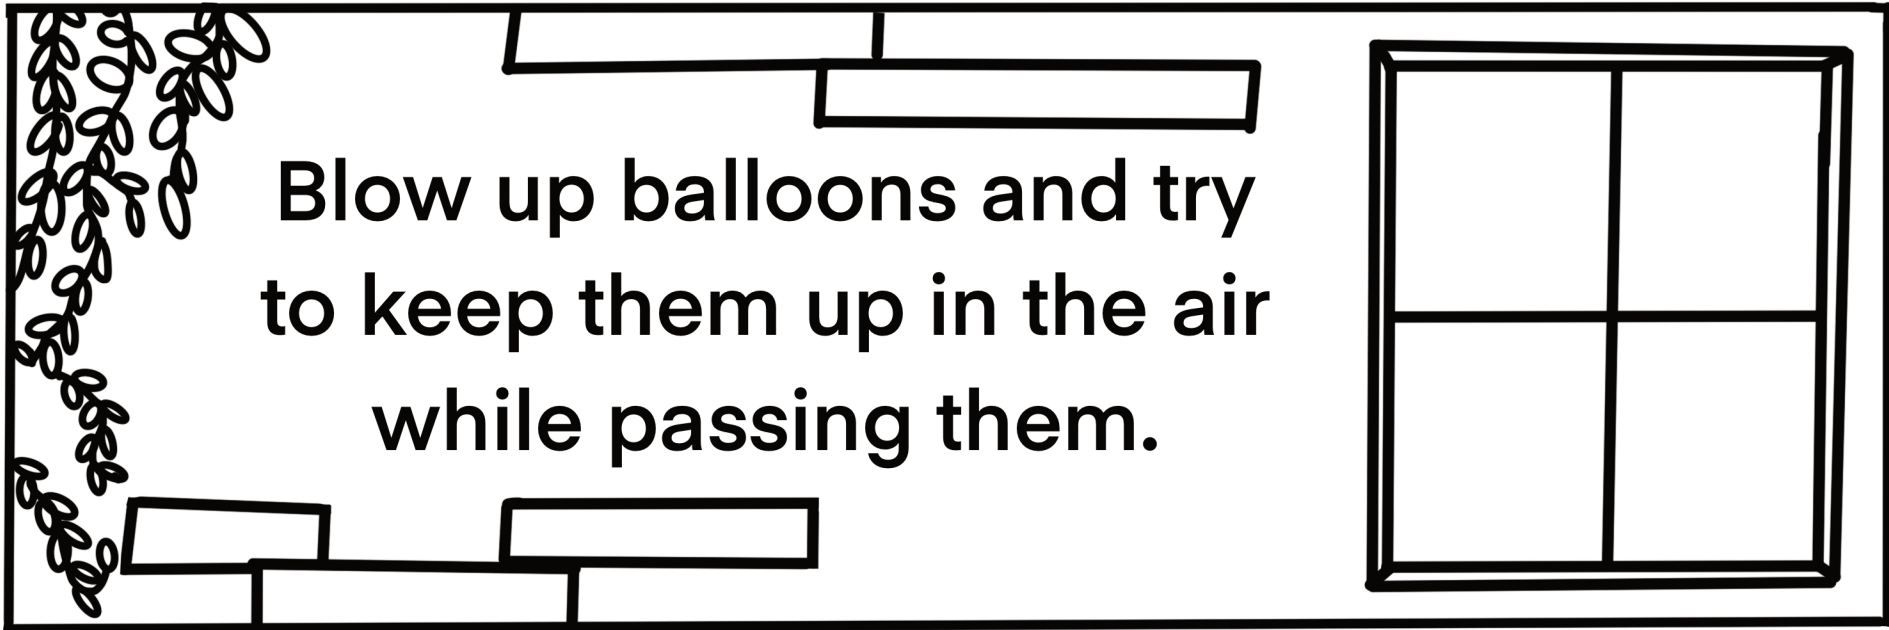

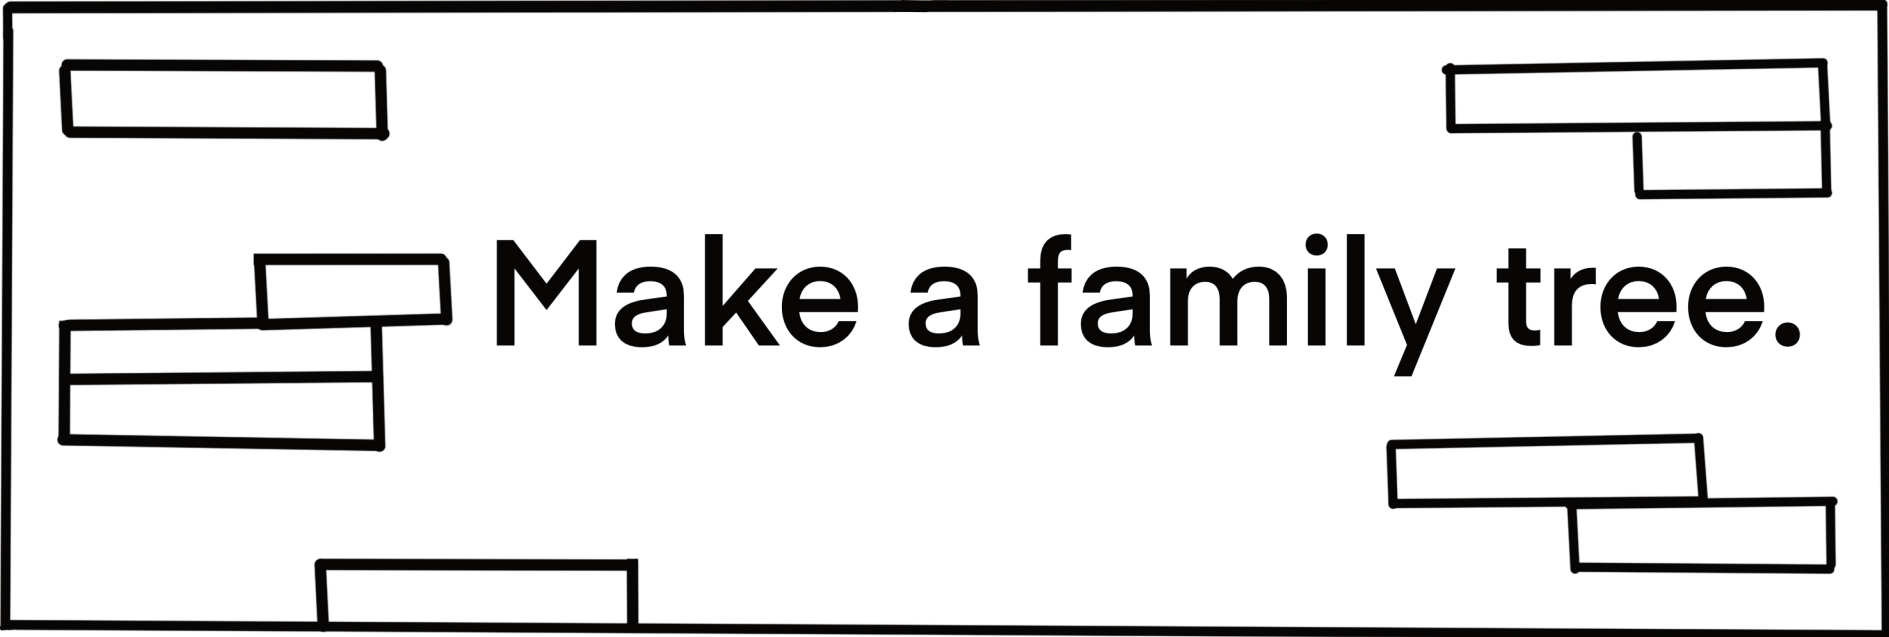

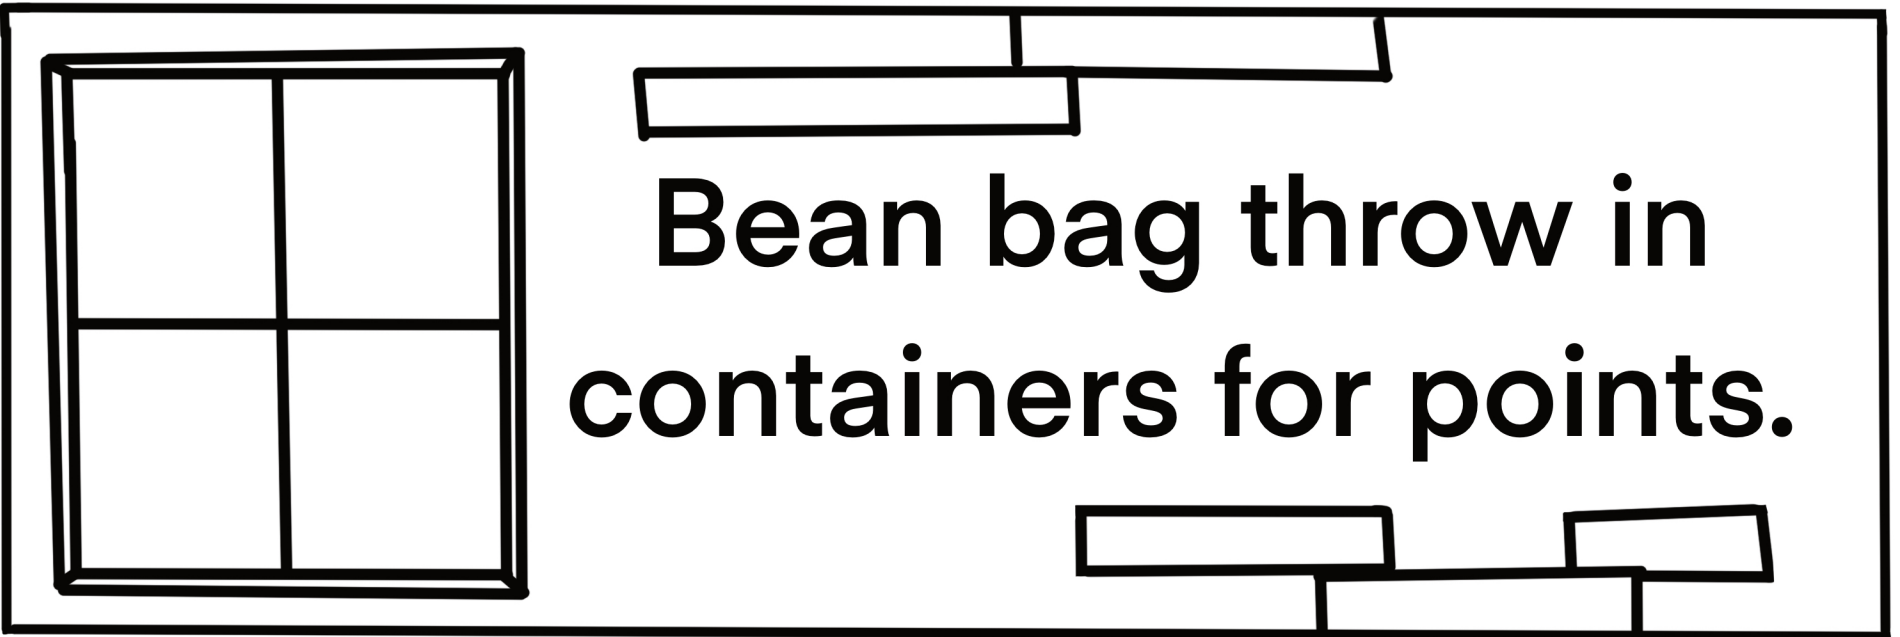

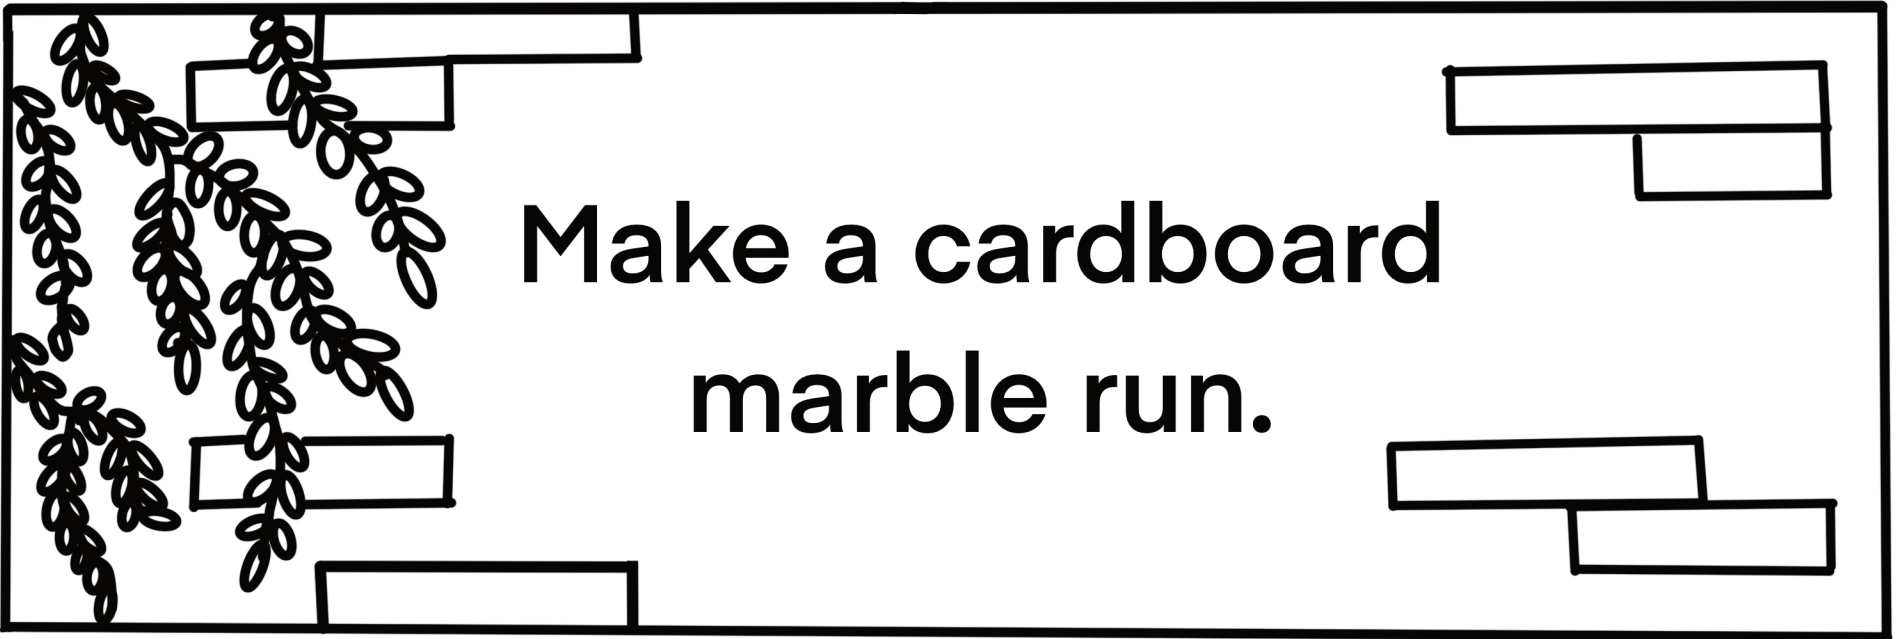

Make an indoor obstacle course and time each other.

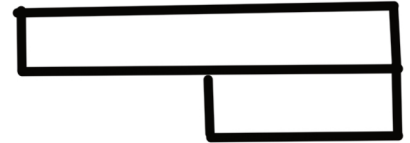

Color while listening to an audio book.

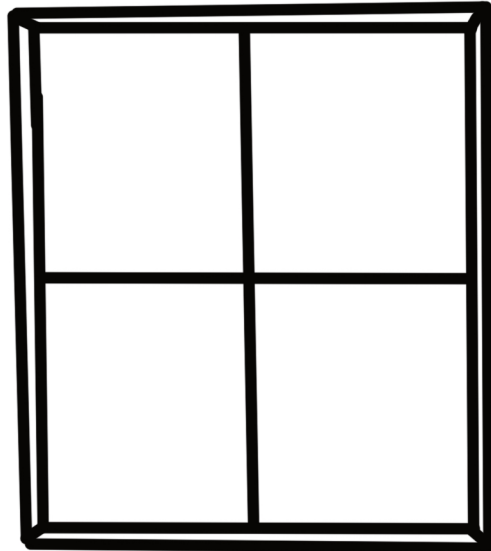

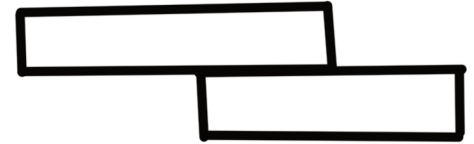

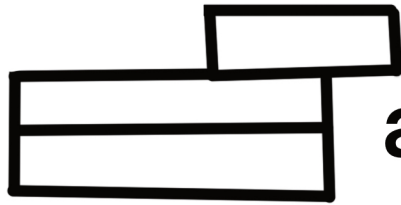

Make your own bowling
alley with a ball and items
in your house.

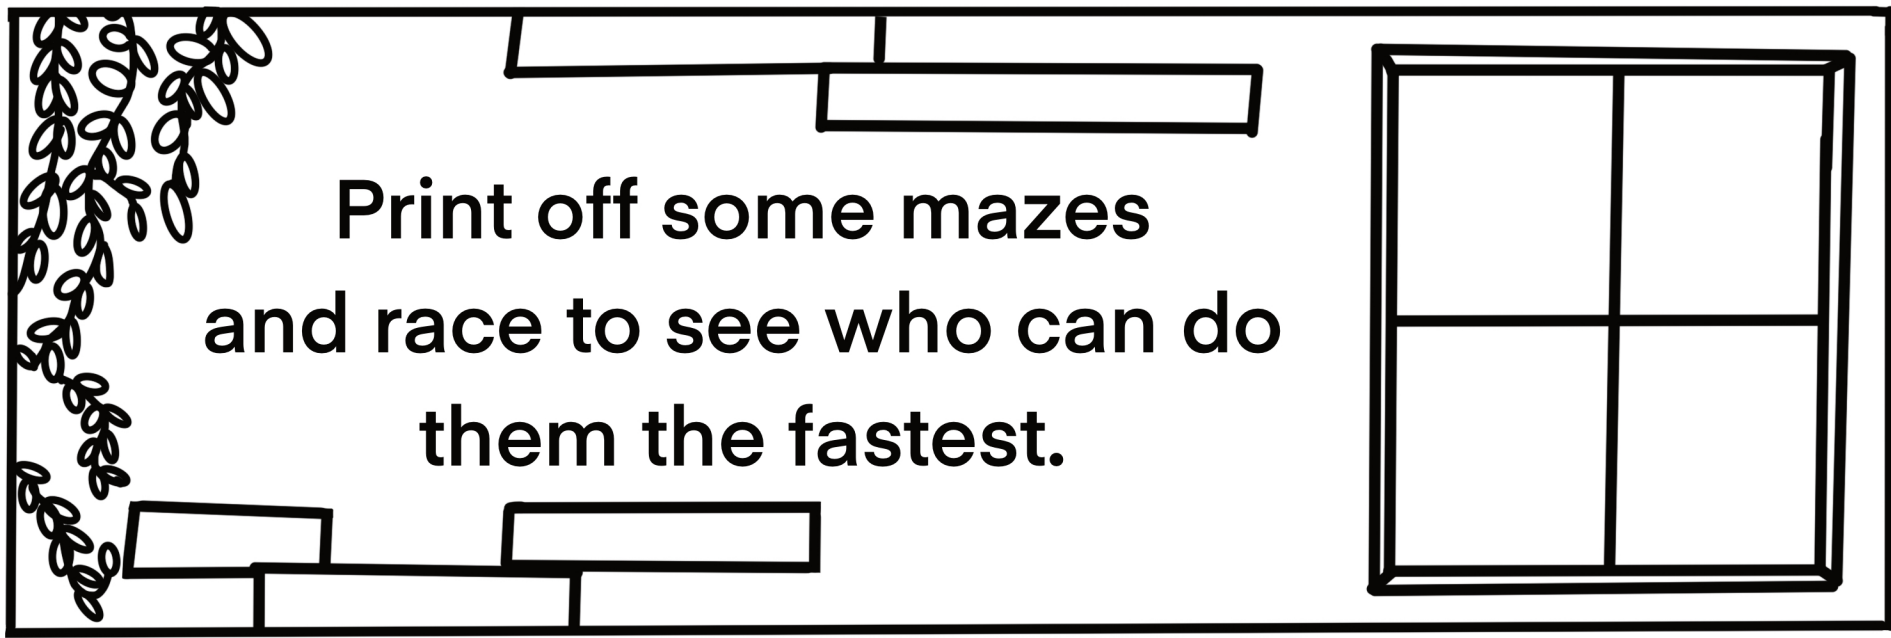

Make 'Oobleck' out of corn
starch and water.

Make bead, noodle
or cereal bracelets.

Print off some mazes
and race to see who can do them the fastest.

Dress-up Day

Play 'Simon Says' or 'Red Light, Green Light'

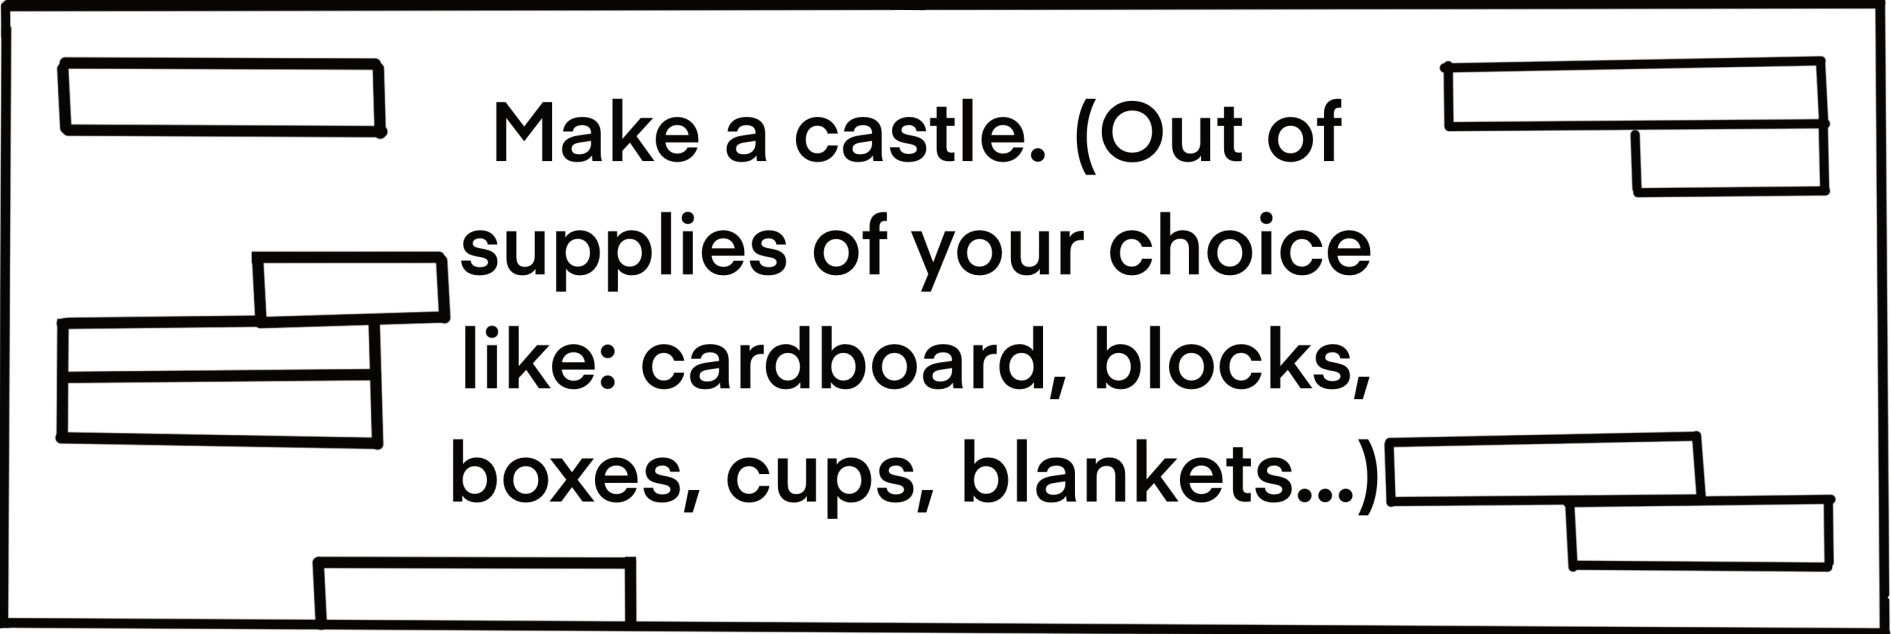

Make finger
puppets or sock
puppets and put on a play.

Freeze food-colored
water then 'ice paint'.

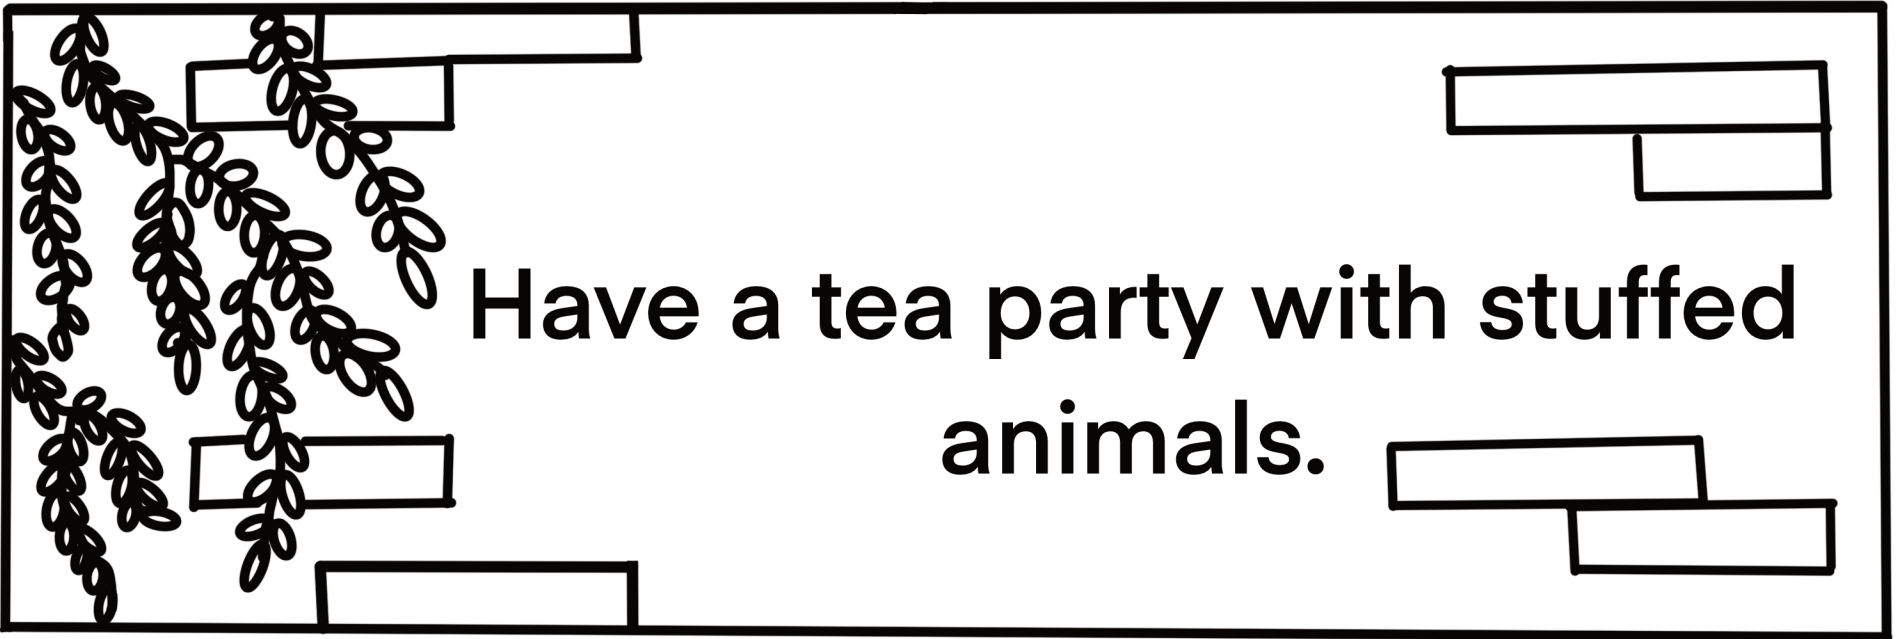

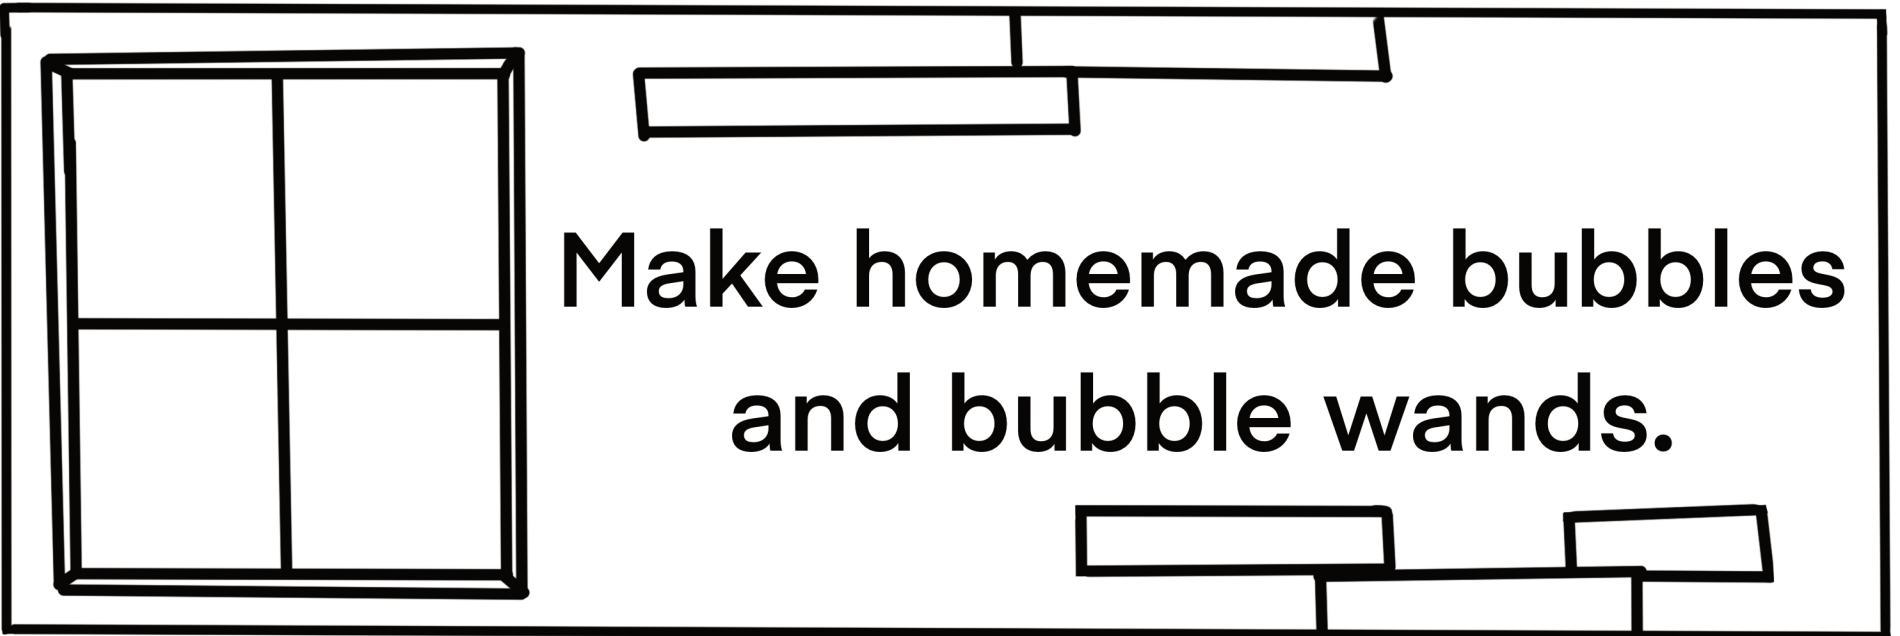

Make a castle. (Out of supplies of your choice like: cardboard, blocks, boxes, cups, blankets...)

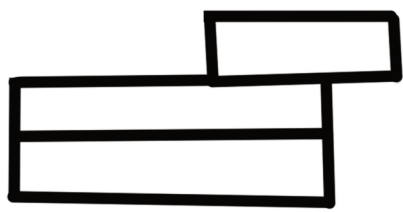

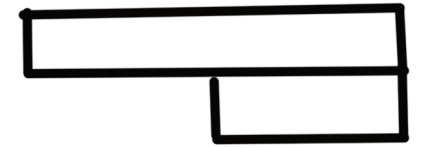

Use tape to make an indoor hopscotch.

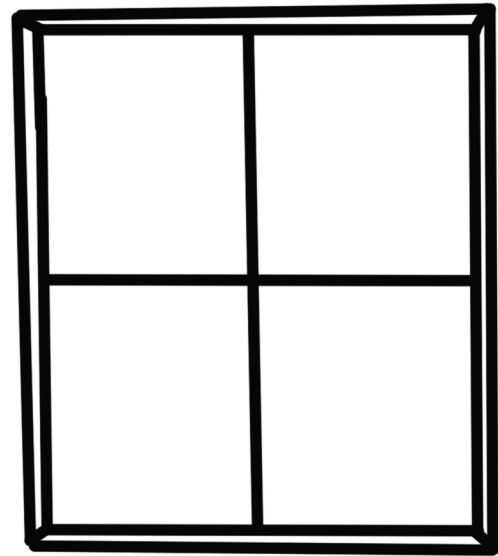

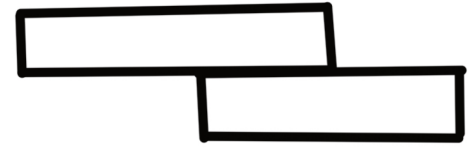

Have a tea party with stuffed animals.

Make homemade bubbles and bubble wands.

Play Freeze Dance

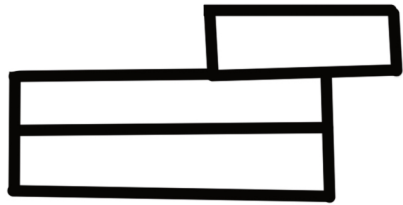

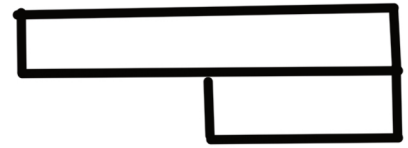

Play hide-and-seeK

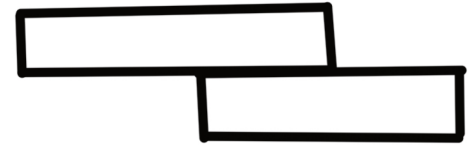

Play some

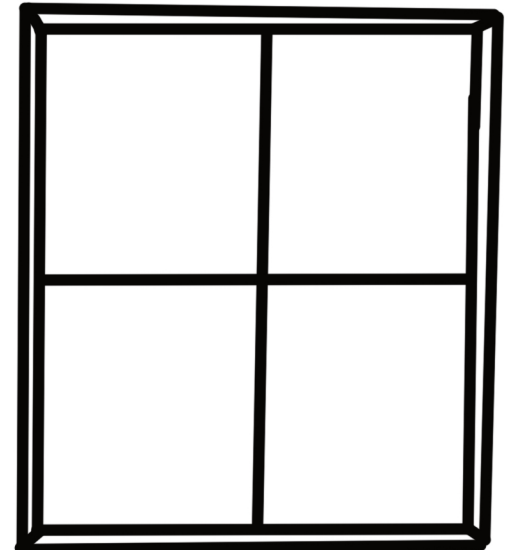

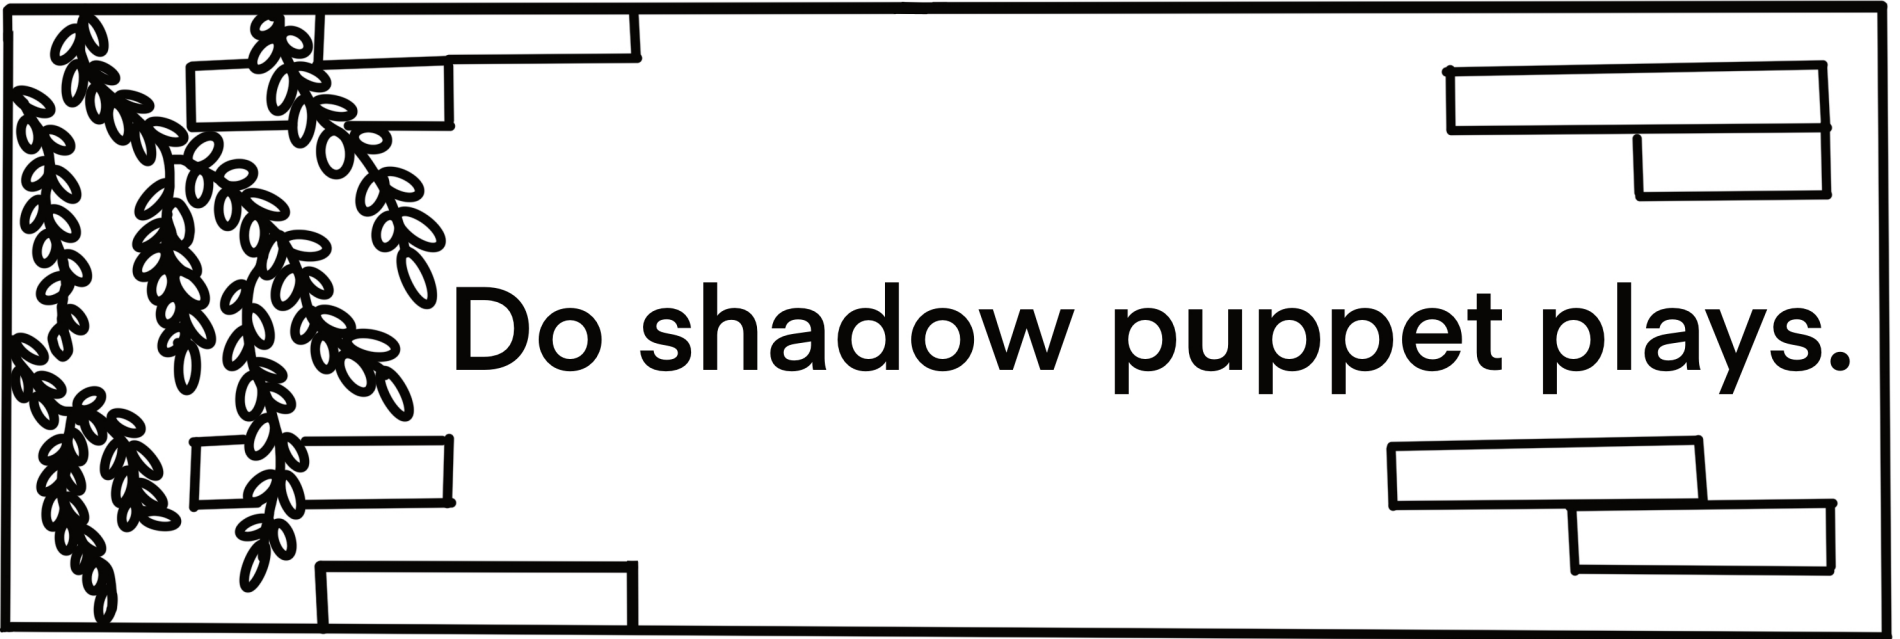

'minute to win it'

games.

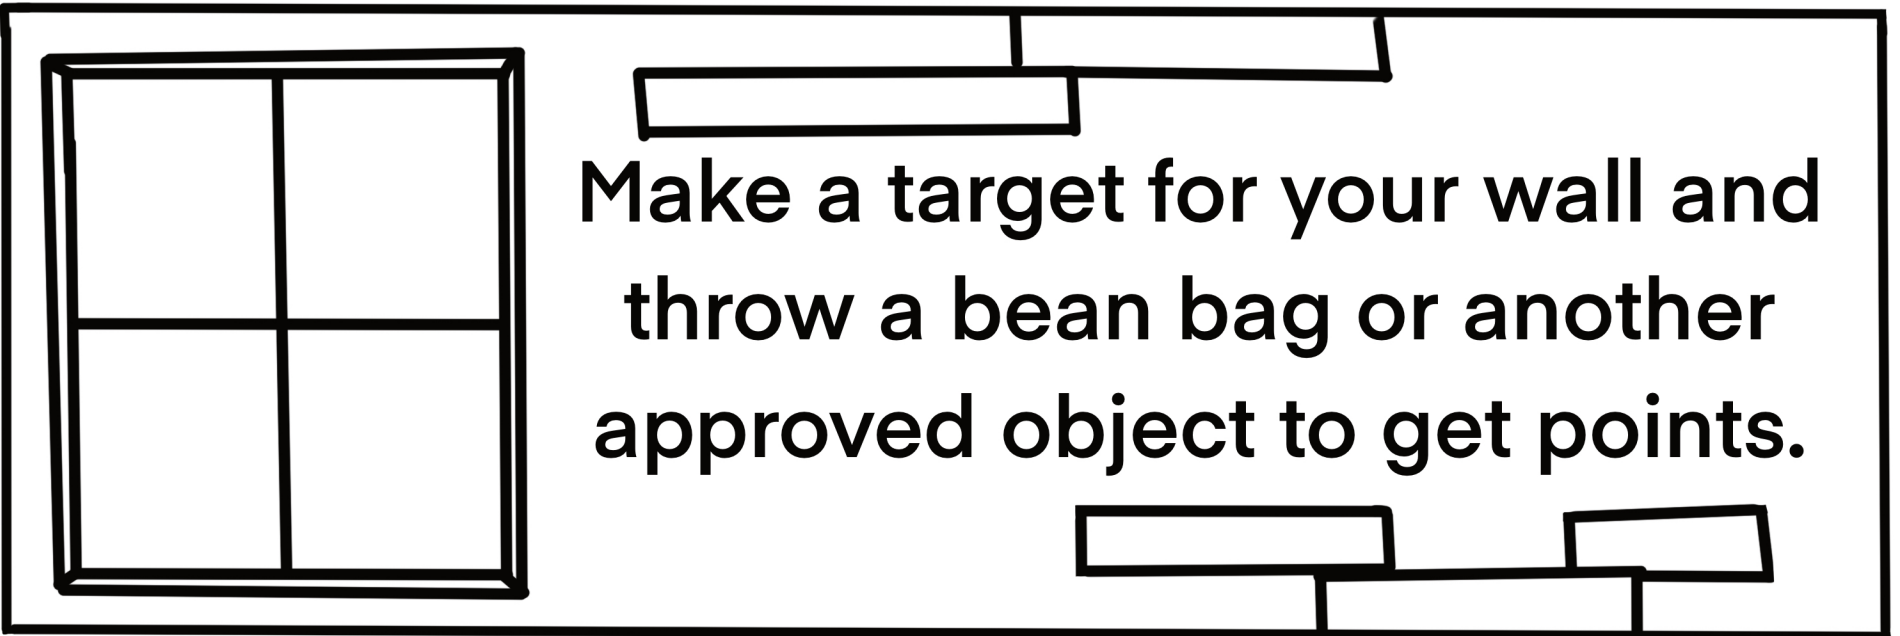

Pillow case 'potato sack' races.

Do shadow puppet plays.

Make a target for your wall and throw a bean bag or another approved object to get points.

